Norma McCorvey, Jane Roe of Roe v. Wade decision legalizing abortion, dies at 69

By Emily Langer

The Washington Post

Norma McCorvey, who was 22, unwed, mired in addiction and poverty, and desperate for a way out of an unwanted pregnancy when she became Jane Roe, the pseudonymous plaintiff in the 1973 U.S. Supreme Court decision that established a constitutional right to an abortion, died Feb. 18 at an assisted-living facility in Katy, Texas. She was 69.

Her death was confirmed by Joshua Prager, a journalist working on a book about Roe v. Wade. The cause was a heart ailment.

McCorvey was a complicated protagonist in a legal case that became a touchstone in the culture wars, celebrated by champions as an affirmation of women's freedom and denounced by opponents as the nationwide legalization of murder of the unborn.

When she filed suit in 1970, she was looking not for a sweeping ruling for all women from the highest court in the land, but rather, simply, the right to legally and safely end a pregnancy that she did not wish to carry forward. In her home state of Texas, as in most other states, abortion was prohibited except when the mother's life was at stake.

On Jan. 22, 1973, the Supreme Court handed down its historic 7-to-2 ruling, written by Justice Harry Blackmun, articulating a constitutional right to privacy that included the choice to terminate a pregnancy.

The ruling established the trimester framework, designed to balance a woman's right to control her body and a state's compelling interest in protecting unborn life. Although later modified, it was a landmark of American jurisprudence and made Jane Roe a figurehead - championed or reviled - in the battle over reproductive rights that continued into the 21st century.

Her story

According to the most sympathetic tellings of her story, Norma McCorvey was a victim of abuse, financial hardship, drug and alcohol addiction, and personal frailty. For much of her life, she subsisted at the margins of society, making ends meet, according to various accounts, as a bartender, a maid, a roller-skating carhop and a house painter. She found a measure of stability with a lesbian partner, Connie Gonzalez, but even that relationship reportedly ended in bitterness after 35 years.

McCorvey fully shed her courtroom pseudonym in the 1980s, lending her name first to supporters of abortion rights and then, in a stunning reversal, to the cause's fiercest critics as a born-again Christian. But even after two memoirs, she remained an enigma, as difficult to know as when she shielded her identity behind the name Jane Roe.

She admitted that she peddled misinformation about herself, lying about even the most crucial juncture in her life: For years, she claimed that the Roe pregnancy was the result of a rape. In 1987, she recanted, saying that she had become pregnant "through what I thought was love." Although the details of her account were legally unimportant, abortion foes pointed to the lie to discredit McCorvey and her case.

III. PROOF OF DUE NOTICE OF MEETINGS:

“Notice of Public Meeting” was published in the Guam Post on Tuesday, December 13, 2016 and Friday, December 16, 2016.

IV. DETERMINATION OF QUORUM:

With the presence of three (3) of the five (5) board members, a quorum was determined for the meeting.

V. APPROVAL OF MINUTES: Minutes of the regular board meeting held on Tuesday, October 17, 2016 were adopted and approved, subject to corrections.

VI. OLD BUSINESS:

A. Financial Status Update (PDSC and APD Allotment Releases). Accounting Technician Joyce Trecepona, who reported for Chief Fiscal Officer Michael Moreno, she stated that we are at one hundred percent (100%) collection level for FY2016. For FY2017, we received $501,000.00 from DOA – which brings us at fifty five percent (55%) for the current year’s budget.

Domestic Violence (STOP 20145 Grant Funding). Ms. Trecepona reported that the additional $14,000.00 was approved by the STOP grant which brings the budget through to December 31, 2016.

APD Allotment. Ms. Trecepona advised the board that we are pending the finalization of the FY2017 agreement between the Judiciary and PDSC. Administrative Director Cathy Gogue stated that since we do not have a signed agreement, we have not asked for any allotments from Judiciary for FY2017. Per Executive Director Stephen Hattori, we are trying to negotiate administrative costs as we are receiving no benefit from APD for all the work we provide. Our computer guys spend a lot of time helping APD that we are not able to help out our people here at PDSC. Additionally, we provide a lot of support and absorb other resources that we want to exercise the reimbursement of administrative cost within the agreement with Judiciary. Chief Justice Torres suggested that we bring this up to the Judicial Council. Presiding Judge Alberto Lamorena, III added that Managing Attorney Gayle should include administrative cost in their budget for the next fiscal year.

B. Public Defender Update. Executive Director Hattori advised the board that we lost several attorneys and that we are now in the process of hiring new attorneys. We hired Zach Taimanglo on a Limited Term Appointment (LTA) and will be bringing over Eric Overton from APD. We will also have another attorney from the AG’s office who will also be transferring over. Overton and the other attorney from the AG’s is set to start work at PDSC on January 9th. In filling these positions, we will have one more attorney position to fill.

Chief Justice Torres asked if the attorney hired at above step from Minnesota (Richard Hermes) accepted the position with PD. ED Hattori confirmed that he did not accept the position we offered Attorney Hermes.

ED Hattori went over PD’s statistics 1,027 cases opened. 70 pre-judgement cases per attorney with 14 attorneys

C. Alternate Public Defender Update. Managing Attorney Gayle advised the board that we are losing Eric Overton to PD – his last day at the office is December 30th. We are working to close the announcement to hire an Administrative Assistant and a Legal Secretary Supervisor and two lawyer positions. We hope to fill those positions soon.

Chief Justice Torres asked if the Administrative Assistant position was advertised. MA Gayle confirmed it was advertised and closed. Now, we just needs to review the applications and set up the interviews. Chief Justice Torres also asked if APD hires an Administrative Assistant does that mean there will not be a need to use PD's administrative services or will they still need PD's administrative service being that APD's assistant will not be able to do all the administrative work. MA Gayle confirmed that APD's Admin. Assistant will not be able to do everything. Chief Justice Torres asked what will APD's Admin. Assistant be doing for APD. MA Gayle mentioned that this person will be coordinating with PD's administrative services since APD does not have anyone to do any administrative work. Since the office's inception, we were not set-up or designed that way – to handle our administrative responsibilities. Public Defender will continue to do a bulk of the admin support work for APD. The Admin. Assistant will help with procurement. Chief Justice Torres stated that he does not believe there is enough work at APD to have a full-time Admin. Assistant at APD. He had recommended that the hiring for this position be carefully considered as he believes that there is not enough administrative work at APD for this individual.

New Office Space. Managing Attorney Gayle added that APD will be meeting with MV Pangilinan to look at the new office but has not been able to do so. We are supposed to be out of DNA by the end of March.

Corporate Vehicle. The corporate vehicle is on hold and we would like to keep it on the agenda.

- D. DPHSS Legal Assistance Service Program. According to AD Gogue, at the last board meeting, we mentioned we would be meeting with Department of Public Health & Social Services' Senior Citizens Program regarding our ability to provide legal services to Guam's senior citizens. We did met with Art San Agustin and he wanted us to outline what PDSC would do for their program. The meeting was positive and we will update the board relative to our ability to service DPHSS. From our meeting, Mr. San Agustin, stated that we send a letter of interest that will include the cost structure. Once DPHSS approves our request, they will put together a MOU for the overflow that their current contractor, Tom Fisher, is unable to handle.
- E. Shanks-Kindlon Training: April 5 – 8, 2017. AD Gogue explained how PDSC put training together for PDSC and APD earlier in the year, and the training was well received by the attorneys who attended. Again in 2017, we want to bring the Shanks-Kindlon team for a half-day session for the private bar and two full-day sessions for the APD/PD attorneys.

AD Gogue stated that in planning for such training, we want to make sure that we had the following budget approved and set aside so that we are able to make arrangements accordingly:

PDSC/APD Legal Clinic

Airline Tickets (NY-GUM: RT) $6,939 X 2 Trainers.....	$13,878.00
Hotel Accommodations ($195 X 5 Days)	$975.00
Venue Rental for 3 Days (Refreshments / Lunch).....	$5,000.00
TOTAL	$19,853.00

In reviewing the budget, Chief Justice Torres asked if the budget was split based on the number of attorneys rather than the fifty-fifty split that is presented in the budget. AD Gogue explained to the board that rather than splitting the cost on a pro rata basis, it makes more sense to share the cost at 50 percent between both offices. PDSC does all the work administratively, with support staff, MIS and the Administrative Director’s time – we found it equitable to suggest the 50/50 split. AD Gogue added that if APD were to send their attorneys off-island for the training it would be more than the $9,000.00 that is suggested with the fifty percent split.

Chief Justice Torres explained that he could see the administrative costs being split but not the entire training budget. AD Gogue added that the attorney difference between PDSC and APD is 13 to 6 – which is about half. She further explained to the board that all the resources used for such training is absorbed by PDSC – with no direct or indirect cost being shared with APD. Chief Justice Torres stated that maybe a 45/55 split be considered for the training. He added that there clearly should be additional cost to APD for all the organization by PDSC.

AD Gogue reiterated that she is agreeable to the 45-55 split for training costs and not a pro rate. Chief Justice Torres asked Presiding Judge Lamorena his thoughts on the matter. Presiding Judge Lamorena also asked MA Gayle if she will be providing administrative support, Ms. Gayle mentioned she was never asked. AD Gogue informed the board that APD has never provided admin support to PDSC but will ask in the future. Presiding Judge Lamorena commented that he will go with what the board comes up with. Chief Justice Torres suggested we consider a 60-40 split in which AD Gogue agreed would be equitable to both APD and PDSC.

Chief Justice Torres asked if MA Gayle is prepared to send all her attorneys to the training for roughly $9,000.00. MA Gayle stated that she plans to have all the APD attorneys attend the training. ED Hattori mentioned that the half-day session with the private bar attorneys will allow us to develop a closer working relationship with the other defense attorneys and offer some CLE for their attendance. The Chief Justice suggested PDSC charge a minimal fee for the training and ED Hattori said he would offer the training to the attorneys on the Private Attorney Panel and the Juvenile Panel which Presiding Judge Lamorena says will help defray some of the cost.

Referring back to the budget, Chief Justice Torres inquired about the airline tickets and why it is so high at $7,000.00 per ticket. He then asked if the tickets were for economy class. AD Gogue replied that the airfare is for business class tickets on Delta. She further explained to the board that like the last training, the Shanks-Kindlon team has waived their honorarium fee for the airline up-grade. After checking with United, the cost for business class tickets would be about $3,000.00 per person. The $7,000.00 is a rough estimate and we will probably go below the estimated budget provided to the board. Chief Justice Torres stated that the $7,000.00 is really high for airfare. He added that he is uncomfortable with the $14,000.00 budget for airfare and feels better at allocating $10,000.00 and no more than $5,000.00 each for airfare. AD Gogue commented that she will work to ensure that the budget for airfare stays within the amount approved by the board. Chief Justice Torres suggested that we reduce the budget by approximately $3,878.00 – which will bring the total training budget to $16,000.00.

Presiding Judge Lamorena asked if we are anticipating a third trainer. ED Hattori explained we are trying to get the investigators certified by flying out a trainer. Presiding Judge Lamorena suggested that we approve a budget now so that we do not have to come back to ask for a training budget for the investigators. Chief Justice Torres was hesitant to approve the investigator training budget without knowing who the trainer will be and what they will do for PDSC/APD. Unlike the Shanks-Kindlon team, they are proven commodities. We have their CVs (curriculum vitae) and know of their prior presentation success. We know in a nutshell what they will be doing for PDSC/APD. ED Hattori and AD Gogue agreed that since we do not have a trainer identified yet, ideally we would like to include the investigator training during the same time period with attorneys; however, we would prefer to wait so that we can bring the details to the board. Chief Justice Torres suggested that management come in for more money for the investigators once the program and trainer is finalized.

There being no further discussion, motion was made by Presiding Judge Lamorena and seconded by Trustee Ada to approve the training budget of $16,000.00 for the Shanks-Kindlon. There being no objections, motion carried.

Resolution No. 03-17

VII. EXECUTIVE SESSION

A. Performance Evaluation of Managing Attorney Gayle. The board went into Executive Session to discuss MA Gayle's performance evaluation survey results at 1:15PM.

The board reconvened session at 1:30PM.

After review and discussing MA Gayle's annual performance results conducted through Survey Monkey, it was agreed that the survey be shared with Ms. Gayle. Chief Justice Torres announced that MA Gayle will provide the opportunity to respond to the results of the survey at the next board meeting.

Chief Justice Torres stated that MA Gayle was asked to address some of the statements in the evaluation report and that she put together a report that addresses her accomplishments and areas of improvement that have been identified through the survey. As discussed during executive session, she will address some of the summary comments and the overall evaluation provided through the survey. MA Gayle is to come up with an action plan to address some of the areas for improvement for the board's review and input at the next board meeting – which is currently scheduled for January 17, 2016.

In terms of the next scheduled board meeting, Chief Justice Torres suggested that the meeting be moved to January 18, 2016, subject to approval by the incoming Chief Justice. He stated that since her swearing in is scheduled for Tuesday, January 17th at 10:00AM, it is possible that he or she will be able to come to the board meeting but it is best to confirm such possibility.

Presiding Judge Lamorena suggested that maybe the meeting be moved to January 24th. Chief Justice Torres stated that the question would be if the incoming Chief Justice will go to the conference of Chief Justices at the end of January. Chief Justice Torres will ask the new Chief Justice what her schedule will be like, and if the 18th will work for the next scheduled board meeting.

Before adjourning, Presiding Judge Lamorena thanked Chief Justice Torres for his leadership in the last three years. There have been a lot of positive changes with the PDSC/APD since his leadership over the past three years. AD Gogue mentioned the expansion of the office under his leadership, and that the board will be invited to the ribbon cutting of Civil Division once it opens up. She then invited the board members to tour the newly renovated area of PDSC. AD Gogue advised the board that the Corporation received more for less with the renegotiation of their contract with MV Pangilinan.

VIII. PUBLIC DISCUSSION: None.

IX. ADJOURNMENT AND NEXT MEETING DATE. Motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Presiding Judge Lamorena and seconded by Trustee Ada. There being no further business to discuss, the meeting adjourned at 1:41PM.

The next regularly scheduled board meeting will be on Wednesday, January 18, 2017, at 12:30PM in the Public Defender Service Corporation Conference Room.

Respectfully submitted,

CATHY GOGUE
Secretary

INVOLVING THE RETENTION PERIOD OF CLIENT FILES

- WHEREAS, On June 13, 1995 the Board of Trustees of the Public Defender Service Corporation adopted Resolution Number PDSC 95-04 reflecting a Records Retention Schedule in order to provide for the preservation and/or disposition of PDSC records in a manner consistent with Government of Guam records retention policies and procedures; and
- WHEREAS, Authorization to dispose of PDSC Client Files (Reproduction on Microfilm Completed) after seven (7) years was designated; and
- WHEREAS, The Corporation's previous archiving method of microfilming has proven obsolete and is no longer an acceptable method of archiving clients' records, while budgetary constraints have prevented the acquisition of updated equipment; and
- WHEREAS, Storage space for these records has become extremely limited, forcing the PDSC to place boxes of files in areas which are hazardous to the operations of the organization; and
- WHEREAS, Duplicates of these documents are also on file with the courts of Guam, thereby providing another source of records retention for PDSC clients; and
- WHEREAS, It has become impractical, unfeasible and hazardous for the PDSC to continue to retain these records; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED, The Board of Trustees of the Public Defender Service Corporation, in its meeting of April 5, 2005, authorized the amendment of the PDSC Records Retention Schedule to reflect the retention period for all closed client files, archived or not, at ten (10) years from the opening dates; and be it further
- RESOLVED, The PDSC Executive Director, or her designee, shall develop standard operating procedures specifically describing the archiving methods to be used by the Corporation, and is also authorized to dispose of these records in a safe and orderly fashion, provided that prior notice to PDSC clients is published in a newspaper of general circulation, giving them an opportunity to take possession of their respective files, with an assurance that the confidentiality of clients' records is preserved and well-guarded at all times.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED this 5th day of April, 2005.

STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE

DIVISION/SECTION: SECRETARIAL DIVISION
NUMBER: 001-FY2017	DATE OF ISSUE: February 27, 2017	EFFECTIVE DATE:
SUBJECT: Case Closure Policy and Procedure

Policy: Establishing efficient processes for orderly case file closure is central to running a professional practice, managing risk and fulfilling PDSC’s client care obligations.

Purpose: This policy sets out best practices for managing file closure at the termination of a matter and the need to manage risks inherent in the mismanagement of file administration, and in particular, leaving a file open when it is ready for closure, or closing cases prior to the expiration of PDSC’s legal obligation. PDSC is likely to improve the effectiveness of the office practice when an efficient system in file management is implemented.

Scope: Legal Secretaries, Records Division

Responsibilities: Review and manage file closure as an integral part of case processes and procedures for on-going systematic file management.

Definitions: N/A

Procedure: Print and use “FILE CLOSING CHECK LIST” to complete the file closing process.

1. On Abacus change case status to “CLOSED”.
2. Enter date of closure which is the filing date of the closure order or dismissal order or withdrawal order.
3. If litigation or domestic matter, prepare and file a withdrawal as attorney of record.
4. Ensure the following documents have been scanned and linked:
 - a. Judgments
 - b. Plea Agreements
 - c. Withdrawals
 - d. Closure Orders
 - e. Closure Hearing Notes
 - f. Jury Verdict Forms
5. If you have not yet done so, the client should have received a copy of his/her Judgment and Plea Agreement. PDSC’s received copy should be scanned and linked.
6. It is not necessary to remove any documents from the file.
7. Final note on Abacus should read “Date of Closure – Date Destroy”.
Entry Sample: Closure Date: 07/01/2016 – Destroy: July 2024
8. Transmit to Records.

OF THE PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICE CORPORATION
RELATIVE TO
THE ADOPTION OF A "RECORDS RETENTION SCHEDULE" FOR THE PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICE CORPORATION

RESOLUTION NO. PDSC 95-04

WHEREAS, The Public Defender Service Corporation is in need of a Records Retention Schedule in order to provide for the preservation and/or disposition of its records in a manner consistent with the Government of Guam's records retention policies and procedures; and

WHEREAS, The attached Records Retention Schedule was developed specifically for the use of the Public Defender Service Corporation; and

WHEREAS, The implementation of this schedule will ensure the following:

1. The preservation of records deemed of permanent value;
2. The timely and systematic removal of records from office space to less expensive storage facilities (i.e., GSA Storage Warehouse and/or reproduction on microfilm); and
3. The destruction of records no longer considered useful;

now therefore be it

RESOLVED: The Board of Trustees of the Public Defender Service Corporation, in its meeting of June 13, 1995, directed the Executive Director to approve and implement the attached "RECORDS RETENTION SCHEDULE"; be it further RESOLVED: This "RECORDS RETENTION SCHEDULE" shall take effect immediately upon adoption by the Public Defender Service Corporation Board of Trustees.
