GDOE reports rise in sexual assault referrals

By John O'Connor
john@postguam.com

The number of sexual assault disciplinary referrals among students at the Guam Department of Education has reached its highest point in four school years, according to data from the department.

Reported sexual assaults, which involve physical contact, reached 33 cases during school year 2016-2017, about four more than the 29 reported in school year 2013-2014.

But disciplinary referrals for sexual assaults have actually been in decline since school year 2013-2014, marking a spike in reporting activity for school year 2016-2017.

Sexual harassment numbers

Cases of sexual harassment among students have fluctuated as well. Sexual harassment may only involve verbal abuse of a sexual nature. The number of disciplinary referrals reached a high point in school year 2014-2015, at 128 cases total. The number dropped to 93 cases the following school year, but rose again to 97 cases for school year 2016-2017.

The education department has partnered with other agencies to implement sexual assault outreach and awareness programs in schools, and this may help explain marked changes in reporting activity and subsequent disciplinary action.

Organizations such as the Healing Hearts Crisis Center within the Guam Behavioral Health and Wellness Center perform these outreach activities.

In May 2016, GDOE and the Office of the Attorney General were able to meet a nearly five-year-old mandate for the recommendation and adoption of policies that address the sexual abuse of children. This resulted in the adoption of curriculum that teaches students about sexual assault, including what qualifies as sexual assault and how to report that behavior.

> "There's a lot of under-reporting going on, so there's probably a lot more cases of sexual assault and its probably not being reported."
> – Jonathan Guerrero, district psychologist, Guam Department of Education

Healing Hearts and other organizations provide services for victims of sexual assault but, according to GDOE District Psychologist Jonathan Guerrero, the department has also made efforts to provide services internally through a school-based behavioral health program, implemented within the last year.

"GDOE is working toward being behavioral health friendly. ... So instead of referring out to Healing Hearts for services, a licensed therapist can provide treatment," Guerrero said.

Students may develop avoidance issues as a result of abuse. They may avoid certain social settings or develop disruptive behavior because of the assault, affecting their educational and social development. The role of the therapist is to reduce these behaviors as well as correct "maladaptive beliefs," such as when the victim believes they are at fault for the abuse, Guerrero said.

"I think island-wide, sexual assault and sexual abuse is an important topic, an important discussion," Guerrero said. "There's a lot of under-reporting going on, so there's probably a lot more cases of sexual assault and its probably not being reported."

Counselor: Many incidents go unreported

Between 25 and 40 percent of sexual assaults go unreported, according to Maria Aguon, a licensed professional counselor and program manager for the Healing Hearts.

Sexual assault and harassment are two of GDOE's smaller categories for disciplinary referrals per year, but children – particularly those between 12 and 16 years old – are the highest-reporting age group for sexual assault, based on data from Healing Hearts.

Those seeking services from Healing Hearts can contact 647-5351/8833.

Tourism numbers up despite NKorea threat

By Manny Cruz
manny@postguam.com

The island's tourism agency yesterday said visitor arrivals this month alone were up 3 percent, despite North Korean leader Kim Jong Un's recent threat to launch missiles toward Guam.

"I think our performance even in the midst of the threats shows how resilient our tourism industry is," said Nico Fujikawa, senior tourism research analyst for the Guam Visitors Bureau. "To top it off, we're coming out of the best July we've ever had on record, with 130,000 arrivals last month."

Fujikawa was presenting at a Rotary Club of Guam meeting.

One possible reason the market performed so well despite the threat is that Korean travelers are desensitized to the North Korean leader's threats. According to GVB, Korean arrivals have provided a boost to Guam tourism in the face of declining numbers from Japan.

"I feel perfectly safe here," said Sang Yeob Kim, a father of two, while he and his family enjoyed a late lunch earlier this week at Mom's Bop Burger in Tumon. Sang, through the assistance of a translator, said, "I don't think that war is going to happen. Guam is safer than South Korea because of the military."

Sang said his family members in Korea called him and his wife shortly after their arrival in Guam.

"They're not that worried," he said.

The GVB analyst said that, while Korean tourist arrivals are up, Japanese visitors are Guam's "ideal tourists," since they spend roughly $100 more per day while they're on island.

Tourism revenues increasing

Fujikawa said that, so far this year, Guam has collected more than $980,000 in tourism monies, a 4.6 percent increase in revenue over last fiscal year.

"I think it's safe to expect about $1.6 million this year," he said. "That means we're tracking 5 percent growth over last year."

Another reason for the continued growth, which may produce even bigger payouts in the future, is the recent presence of international media crews on Guam covering the regional tensions leading up to Aug. 15 – North Korea's threatened date of attack.

> "I think it's safe to expect about $1.6 million this year. ... That means we're tracking 5 percent growth over last year."
> – Nico Fujikawa, tourism research analyst, Guam Visitors Bureau

'The silver lining'

"Al Jazeera just did a diving feature a few days ago, and we think that may play a significant role in our expansion, particularly with the European market," Fujikawa said. "But we want to play it conservative for now and continue working with our current market. Any diversification in our market is sort of the silver lining in the clouds at this point."

ENJOYING THE ISLAND: Tourists enjoy the Plaza de España in Hagåtña on Aug. 3. Visitor arrivals are up in August despite North Korea's recent threats, according to the Guam Visitors Bureau.

Absent:	Attorney Donna M. Cruz, Member (Excused)
Others Present:	Attorney Stephen P. Hattori, PDSC Executive Director Richard Dirkx, Deputy Director Attorney AnaMaria C. Gayle, APD Managing Attorney Cathy Gogue, Administrative Director Bernadette L.P. Lizama, Personnel Specialist IV Michael S. Moreno, Chief Fiscal Officer Kenneth A. Lim, Computer Systems Analyst Cecelia M. Fernandez, Administrative Assistant Eleanor Quenga-Rios, Administrative Assistant

III. PROOF OF DUE NOTICE OF MEETINGS:

"Notice of Public Meeting" was published in the Guam Post on Wednesday, June 21, 2017 and Friday, June 23, 2017.

IV. DETERMINATION OF QUORUM:

With the presence of four (4) of the five (5) board members, a quorum was determined for the meeting.

V. APPROVAL OF MINUTES:

Minutes of the regular board meeting held on Tuesday, May 30, 2017 were adopted and approved, subject to corrections.

VI. OLD BUSINESS:

A. Financial Status Update (PDSC and APD Allotment Releases). Chief Fiscal Officer Michael Moreno stated that PDSC's allotment is at eighty percent (80%), with the last allotment received for first half of June.

Domestic Violence (STOP 20145 Grant Funding). CFO Moreno reported that we are awaiting the amendment for STOP 2014. PDSC has paid the program up to June, 2017. Upon receipt of signed amended STOP 2014 MOU, PDSC will be fully reimbursed since the deadline to expend the funds is June 30, 2017.

APD Allotment. We are anticipating receiving the allotment for the last quarter of FY2017 by next week.

B. Public Defender Update. ED Hattori reported to the board that PD's budget hearing was last week. Overall, we thought that the hearing went well, and now we will wait and see if we get the total funds requested to open a Civil Division. He also thanked Chief Justice Maraman for providing opening remarks and that we are certain her remarks as well as her presence will help with our budget request. ED Hattori added that we were required to take an oath to testify about the budget. Based on our discussions with the Legislature, it seems like we will receive support from a lot of the senators.

ED Hattori then shared the latest numbers relative to PD's cases from 2016 to 2017. He shared with the board that the numbers provided gives an idea of the amount of we work we do. Presiding Judge Lamorena asked for clarification relative to the category of cases queried through ABACUS (PDSC'S case management system). ED Hattori stated that based on the date of this report, there are 1,122 pre-judgment cases. He added that the numbers shown for 2017 are close to accurate. The report also provides information relative to how much time we have had with our clients and how many appointments have been scheduled with clients. Presiding Judge Lamorena commented that this it is good to see that PD attorneys are meeting with clients. He added that in the past, he knows that one of the greatest criticisms from the bench is that the attorneys were only meeting with their client right before the hearing. It is good to see that this past concern by the judges is being addressed.

C. Alternate Public Defender Update. Managing Attorney Gayle reported that they have not moved into their new office yet. Hopefully we will be in our new office by September.

MA Gayle then reported to the board that they lost attorney Alyesha Young duty to a military transfer of her husband. Chief Justice Maraman suggested MA Gayle call Erica at the court. There were two people who submitted applications for Law Clerks at the court but their applications were submitted late and the position were already filled.

Chief Justice Maraman asked if APD's lease was extended and MA Gayle mentioned that they are on a month-to-month lease with DNA. They have graciously allowed us to rent our space on a month-to-month bases.

D. Records Retention. AD Gogue advised the board that an ad was published twice in the Guam Daily Post advising clients that they were able to retrieve their closed files outside of the retention period. Unfortunately, no one responded to the ad, and we were able to dispose of eleven hundred pounds of files that were shredded through Dewitt. Based on discussions at the last meeting, Resolution No. 05-17 was prepared and is ready for Chief Justice Maraman's signature.

Reso. No 05-17

The board called for a recess and went into Executive Session at 12:48 PM.

VII. EXECUTIVE SESSION

Reconvening from Executive Session at 1:27 PM, Chief Justice Maraman advised of the following:

A. Performance Evaluation for ED Hattori. Chief Justice Maraman reported that the board was satisfied with ED Hattori's evaluation. Based on the comments provided by Survey Monkey, suggestions were made to ED Hattori of ways to improve some of the concerns that were addressed through his evaluation. Chief Justice Maraman asked if there is a motion for Mr. Hattori to continue as Executive Director. Presiding Judge Lamorena made the motion to continue the appointment of Mr. Hattori as Executive Director for an additional year. Seconded by Trustee Ada, and approved by acclamation.

B. Attorney 5, Managing Attorney Gayle's Performance Evaluation. Up-date to be provided at the August meeting.

VIII. PUBLIC DISCUSSION: None.

IX. ADJOURNMENT AND NEXT MEETING DATE

. Motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Presiding Judge Lamorena and seconded by Trustee Ada. There being no further business to discuss, the meeting adjourned at 1:29PM.

The next regularly scheduled board meeting will be on Tuesday, August 22, 2017, at 12:30PM in the Public Defender Service Corporation Conference Room.

Respectfully submitted,

Cathyann C. Gogue
Secretary
